Republicans Asked to "Clean Up" Atlantic-Mayor Defends Self

ATLANTIC CITY, July 24. (AP) -Letters calling on state Republican leaders to "give serious thought to the need for completely reorganizing the party in Atlantic county" were sent to-day by William B. Shields, who says he is out to "clean up" this resort today.

The letters were addressed to Henry W. Jeffers, Republican state chairman, and Governor Harold G. Hoffman.

"The Republican state com-mittee," Shields wrote, "ought to give immediate attention to conditions within the so-called Republican organization in Atlantic county, which is predominantly Republican, run up adequate majorities for Landon and Knox in November.
